

War Is Coming If You Want It
Car Seat Headrest

[Verse 1]

Bm C#m
Last night I dreamed that you'd murdered some kids
D E
Gone up towards the border where the freaks live
Bm C#m
I couldn't tolerate it, yet somehow I did
D E
If it had been on TV, I would've changed the channel
Bm C#m
And afterwards I lay awake for quite some time
D E
And thought about opinions I'd kept
Bm C#m
At five in the morning, I couldn't tolerate it
D E
How many had died while I slept?

[Chorus]

A F#m
Now is the time to cast Darwin aside
A F#m
Stop spinning lines that justify the lure of suicide
Bm
And reach out your hands
D
And save someone's life
A
Because war is coming
D
If you want it
A
War is coming
D
If you want it

[Verse 2]

Bm C#m
She's keeping quiet in a season of crime
D E
Walking away as if nothing had changed
Bm
From that awful display
C#m
People are strange
D
If they keep on laughing

E

Nothing will change

[Chorus]

A

F#m

Now is the time to cast the screenplay aside

A

F#m

And try to create some space between the lines

Bm

To lift up your voice

D

And change someone's mind

A

Because war is coming

D

If you want it

A

War is coming

(She's keeping quiet)

D

If you want it

(If you can't tolerate it)

A

War is coming

D

If you want it

A

War is coming

D

If you want it

A

War is coming

D

If you want it
