

Never In A Million Years
Cara Dillon

Really easy and beautiful three chord song, enjoy!

Some of the chords may be in the wrong place slightly, but they should give you a pretty good idea of timing if you listen to the song.

Intro:

B                E        A        x2

Verse 1:

B                    E                    A                    B
If you want me I ll be at your door
                         E                    A                    B
And if you need me I ll be by your side
                         E                    A                    B
Cos every day is a long winding road
                         E                    A                    B
And I ll always be here don t you know

Bridge 1:

E                    A                    B
I wonder why, I wonder why, I wonder why
                         E                    A                    B
I always try, I wonder why, I wonder why

Chorus:

A                    B                    E
Everytime I look at you I feel the blues
                         A                    B                    A
Can t hide the pain inside
                         B                    E                    A                    B                    A
No-one ever told me that my heart could break a hundred thousand times
                         B                    E                    A                    E                    A
Never in a million years I thought the tears could break a heart of stone
B                    E
If you need me let me know

Verse 2:

B                    E                    A                    B
Well, if you ve got no-one to give your heart to
                         E                    A                    B
And if you ve searched and you can t find the truth

E                  A                  B
When they tell you this time to let go
          E                  A                  B
Well, I ll always be here - don t you know

Bridge 2:

E                  A                  B
I wonder why, I wonder why, I wonder why

Middle Eight:

B  E
Oh, nobody told me bout the wind and the trees
          A
And the summer breeze and
B  E
You carry the weight of the world on your shoulders
          A                                  B
And the light is slipping through
  E
And I ve seen the sun catching your eye
          A                                  B
Like the moon in the sky

Chorus 3:

A                          B                  E
Everytime I look at you I feel the blues
          A          B          A
Can t hide the pain inside
                  B                  E                  A          B          A
No-one ever told me that my heart could break a hundred-thousand times
                                  B                  E
And though you ve never asked me to believe its true
          A          E          A          B
I ve loved you from the start
          A                  B                  E
Oh I ve got to find a way to mend today
          A                  B                  A
These wings that need to fly
                  B                  E                  A          B          A
No-one ever told me that my heart could break a hundred-thousand times
          B                  E                  A          E          A
Never in a million years I thought the tears could break a heart of stone
B  E
If you need me let me know
