Intro:

D C Bb D x2

Versel:

D
Standing on a golf course

C
Dressed in P.V.C.

Bb
I chanced upon a Golf Girl

D
Selling cups of tea

She asked me did I want one
Asked me with a grin
For three pence you can buy one
Full right to the brim

So of course I had to have one
In fact I ordered three
So I could watch the Golf Girl
Could see she fancied me

And later on the golf course
After drinking tea
It started raining golf balls
And she protected me

Chorus1:

A
Her name was Pat

C B E
And we sat under a tree

D A
She kissed me
We go for walks
In fine weather
All together

C

On the golf course

B E A

We talk in morse

F G G# G G#

G F# D Bb x2

- key change and here we go:

G F D# G x2
