What About Everything? By Carbon Leaf

This is my first tab, but i am pretty sure it is correct. It is basically a revision of oriolesazb s, but with a couple changes and a capo, which makes life so much easier

Verse

G C
Holiday quiet on these streets, except for some stubborn leaves
Am G
That didn t fall with the fall, and now they clatter in vain
C
Holiday sky. Midnight clear. Wind is high, hard to steer
Am G
Old muffler rumbles like an old fighter plane
G C
In search of some rest. In search of a break
Am G
From a life of tests where something s always at stake

Where something s always so far
C
What about my broken car?
Am
What about my life so far?
D
What about my dream?

What about,

Chorus

C G
What about everything?

Em D
What about aeroplanes?

C G Em
And what about ships that drank the sea?

What about...

C G
What about the moon and stars?

Em D
What about soldier battle scars

C G D
And all the anger that they eat?

Em D G
I am not in need.

Verse 2

G
Get away and come with me.

C
Come away with me and we ll see

Am G
If I was right on that night, that a future was made

C
Before time takes each year, like a knife cuts it clear

Am G
It s school, then work and then life that just sharpens the blade

C
I think about time for fun. I think about time for play

Am G
Then I think about being done, with no resume

With no one left to blame

C
What about fortune and fame?

D
What about your love to obtain?

What about the ring?

What about,

Chorus
