Verse

```
G# C#
Holiday quiet on these streets, except for some stubborn leaves
Bbm G#
That didn t fall with the fall, and now they clatter in vain
C#
Holiday sky. Midnight clear. Wind is high, hard to steer
Bbm G#
Old muffler rumbles like an old fighter plane
G# C#
In search of some rest. In search of a break
Bbm G#
From a life of tests where something s always at stake

Where something s always so far
C#
What about my broken car?
Bbm
What about my life so far?
Eb
What about my dream?

What about,
```

Chorus

C#                      G#
 What about everything?
Fm                      Eb
 What about aeroplanes?
C#                      G#                      Fm
 And what about ships that drank the sea?

What about...

C#                      G#
 What about the moon and stars?
Fm                      Eb
 What about soldier battle scars
C#                      G#                      Eb
 And all the anger that they eat?
Fm    Eb    G#
 I am not in need.

Verse 2

G#
 Get away and come with me.
    C#
 Come away with me and we ll see
                                  Bbm                      G#
 If I was right on that night, that a future was made
    C#
 Before time takes each year, like a knife cuts it clear
    Bbm                      G#
 It s school, then work and then life that just sharpens the blade
    C#
 I think about time for fun. I think about time for play
                                  Bbm                      G#
 Then I think about being done, with no resume

 With no one left to blame
                                  C#
 What about fortune and fame?
                                  Eb
 What about your love to obtain?

What about the ring?

What about,
