

Odessa
Caribou

Hey, This is my first song I ve done, and I noticed it wasn t on UG.

Intro - C#, C, Fm, Fm x4

C# C
Taking it slow, saving up she

Fm
Before she know it, all I ask before she goes home

C# C
She s tired of cryin and sick of his lies

Fm
She s suffered him for far too many years of her life

Feeling low, and scared that he ll say
Do you know how overtime you drove her away
Saving up to, the day when she goes
The day that she stands up
for everything that she chose

(She can say, she can say, she can say
She can say, she can say, she can say
Who knows what shes gonna say)
-repeat-
(She Can Say)

instrument

Saving up for, the day when she goes
The day that she stands up
For everything that she chose
Takin the kids, drivin away
Turn around the life she let him siphon away

And I ve been with you, for all of these years
Tell you what I ve got to show for all of my tears
The times you hurt me, and treated me wrong
Something had to give to stop this thing from going on

(She can say, she can say, she can say
She can say, she can say, she can say
Who knows what shes gonna say)

-repeat-
(She Can Say)

instrument

(She can say, she can say, she can say
She can say, she can say, she can say
Who knows what shes gonna say)
-repeat-
(She Can Say)

She s tired of crying, and sick of his lies
She s suffered him for far too many years of her life
And feeling low, and scared that he ll say
Do you know how overtime you drove her away

The little strumming pattern made my the guitar is a C chord.
