Well, Glen went on vacation for the week. But he has asked me to continue posting his stuff. So for the next week I will try to post 5 songs a day in the order left to me.

I m only posting second hand stuff...
I did not write any of it!
DON T FLAME ME!!! cause I don t wanta here it.
With that out of the way I will continue Glen s work:

Title: SOMEONE TO LAY DOWN BESIDE ME (Carla Bonoff)

Gm
There s somebody waiting alone in the street

Gm
For someone to walk up and greet

Cm7 Dm7
Here you are all alone in the city

Cm7 Dm7
Where s the one that you took to your side

Cm7 Dm7
Lonely faces will stare through your eyes in the night

Gm
And they ll say - woman sweet woman please come home with me

Gm
You re shining and willing and free

Cm7 Dm7
But your love it s a common occurrence

Cm7

Dm7

Not like love that I feel in my heart

Cm7

Dm7

Still you know that may be what I need

F

Is someone to lay down beside me

And even tho it s not real

Just someone to lay down beside me

You re the story of my life

Well morning is breaking the street lights are off

The sun will soon share all the cost

Of a world that can be sort of heartless

Not like love that you feel in our heart

Still you know that may be all you get

Is someone to lay down beside me

And even tho it s not real

Just someone to lay down beside me

You just can't ask for more
