

Dishonest Modesty

Carly Simon

Dishonest Modesty - from Another Passenger - 1976

C7

You come on strong telling everyone
About your latest role

F7

How you saved the movie, stole the show
So you ve been told

C7

And if you have no time for all your offers
You ll see that I get called

F7

And if you have no time for all your men
You ll see that I get balled

G7

Well I don t expect humility

F7

But what about some good old

C7

Dishonest modesty

C7

You say that you can understudy
All the other parts

F7

That you can write a song that will make us cry
And touches all our hearts

C7

And you can House and Garden
Vogue and Glamour, Mademoiselle

F7

Well, I know you can Bitch and Screw
And Penthouse just as well

G7

No I don t expect humility

F7

But what about some good old

C7

Dishonest modesty

C7

You try to be unique
But somehow something s wrong

F7

Your flower childish vision of life
Cannot last too long

C7

You re over thirty and underweight
Though you call yourself petite

F7

And you hang around with all the clowns
Who think they re so elite

G7

Well I don t expect humility

F7

But what about some good old

C7

Dishonest modesty

G7

No I don t expect humility

F7

But what about some good old

C7

Dishonest modesty
