                         Fm7
With a smile on your face
                 D#                      Cm                      F7

Mirrored in their faces I see frustration growing
                 Fm                      G#    G7
And they don t see it showing, why do I?
