

Jazzman

Carole King

INTRO

Bb/G        C                Dm                Ebmaj7                Gm
Lift me, won't you lift me, above the old routine
G#                                G
Make it nice, play it clean, Jazzman

1st sax solo - Bb/G C

Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        Am
When the Jazzman's testifyin' a faithless man believes
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        C                        G
he can sing you into paradise or bring you to your knees
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        Am
It's a gospel kind of feelin' a touch of Georgia slide
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        C                        Dm        (F G G# G#) a song of pure revival and a style that's sanctified

Bb/G C    Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G
Jazzman take my blues away, make my pain
C                        Bb/G                        Am
the same as yours with every change you play
G#                        G
Jazzman, oh Jazzman

2nd sax solo - Bb/G C

Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        Am
When Jazzman's signifyin' and the band is windin' low
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        C                        G
It's the late night side of morning in the darkness of his soul
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        Am
He can fill a room with sadness as he fills his horns with tears
Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G                        C                        Dm
He can cry like a fallen angel when risin' time is near

Bb/G C    Bb/G                        C                        Bb/G
Jazzman take my blues away, make my pain
C                        BbGG                        Am
the same as yours with every change you play
Bb/G                        C                        Dm                        Ebmaj7                        Gm
Oh lift me, won't you lift me with ev'ry turn around
G#    G
Play it sweetly, take me down, oh Jazzman

End sax solo - Bb/G C

This is the closest I got. This is a great song. If somebody has something to correct

or improve it, please do it. Enjoy it!
