

Tying My Shoes

Caroline Smith and the Good Night Sleeps

Intro: G Em

(G) You say that I m never to keen to (Em) leave this place (G) You say that you never wanted to (Em) hit me in the face

More than (C) right now ever (D) before but cant you (G) see that Im only (Em) alone casting (C) lines out to catches who can (D) swallow my presence and (G) pretend that they know what I know (Em) so youre (C) going to town have to (D) open my mouth and (G) empty the contents (Em) onto the floor but if (C) Im ever supposed to ask (D) you take it out than Im (C) only several (D) inches from the (G) door

(G) Hurry Hurry you say as Im (Em) tying my shoes (G) Your hands nervous messed up as they were (Em) tying your shoes and you (C) slipped up and had to (D) start new Well I would (G) never say hurry up to (Em) you But I won t (C) open my mouth or (D) get mad about it Cuz that s (G) just something that I wouldn t (Em) do But you ve got to (C) open your mouth
As youre (D) heading to town
And (G) empty the contents (Em) unto the floor
But if (C) I m ever supposed to (D) ask you to take it out Then I m (C) only several (D) inches from the (G) door
