

Ghosts On The Stereo
Carrie Underwood

[Instrumental]

C F C

[Verse 1]

C F C
You think I m crying over you

Am G C
You think I m dying too

C F C
You think I m thinking way too much

Am G C
And sadly out of touch

G F
With all the world and all my friends, well think what you want and think again,
think again

[Chorus]

C F C
Cause what you don t know is I m throwin a party
F C F
And everybody tonight is feelin alright, with some jack in their coke
C F C
The records are spinnin and the speakers are smokin
F C
There ain t no last call, I m havin a ball with Hank, Haggard and Jones
G
No, I ain t alone
F C F C F
I feel right at home with my ghosts on the stereo

[Verse 2]

C F C
There ain t no lights on, the curtains drawn

Am G C
Just one car in the drive

C F C
And the neighbors might think it s a haunted house, yeah

Am G F
But I ve never felt so alive

[Chorus]

C F C

Cause what they don t know is I m throwin a party
F C F
And everybody tonight is feelin alright, with some jack in their coke
C F C
The records are spinnin and the speakers are smokin
F C
There ain t no last call, I m havin a ball with Hank, Haggard and Jones
G
No, I ain t alone
F C F C F
I feel right at home with my ghosts on the stereo
F
With my ghosts on the stereo

[Bridge]

G

One song at a time, I get their advice

F

And the pain melts away like whiskey on ice

[Chorus]

C F C
Baby you don t know that I m throwin a party

F C F
And everybody tonight is feelin alright, with some jack in their coke

C F C
The records are spinnin and the speakers are smokin

F C
There ain t no last call, I m havin a ball with Hank, Haggard and Jones

G
No, I ain t alone

F C F C
I feel right at home with my ghosts on the stereo

F
With my ghosts on the stereo

C F C F C
Yeah, oh, yeah, I ve got my ghosts on the stereo
