Intro: C# F# C# G#

C#

Where 69 meets 40,

There s a single stop light town,

F#

And back when I was really young,

Bbm

G#

Part of that burned down,

C#

On any given Friday night,

We d drive a hundred miles,

F#

Between the Sonic and the Grocery Store,

Bbm

G#

Laughin all the while,

Bbm

G#

With as many friends as I could pack,

F#

In my daddy s Ford,

Bbm

G#

F#

C#

But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

C#

My hotel in Manhattan,

F#

Holds more people than our town,

C#

And what I just paid for dinner,

G#

Would be a down payment on a house,

Bbm

G#

I d rather be tippin cows in Tulsa,

F#

Then hailing cabs here in New York,

Bbm

G#

F#

C#

But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

Chorus:

F#
I m in a world so wide,
C#
It makes me feel small sometimes,
Bbm G#
I miss the big blue skies,
F#
The Oklahoma kind.

C#
In a world of long red carpets,
F#
The bright lights of Hollywood,
C#
All the paparazzi flashin
G#
Can make a girl feel pretty good,
Bbm G#
You can get anything you want here,
F#
Except a Wal-Mart store,
Bbm G# F# C#
But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

Chorus:

F#
I m in a world so wide,
C#
It makes me feel small sometimes,
Bbm G#
I miss the big blue skies,
F#
The Oklahoma kind.

G#
Where the Wildcats beat the Ironheads,
Old Settler s day and the Okrafest,
After prom down at the bowling lanes,
Catchin crappy fish in Eufaula lake,
Bbm G# F# F#sus4
I ain t in Checotah anymore.

F# C# F#sus4 F# G#
