

I Ain't In Checotah Anymore
Carrie Underwood

No Capo

Note: The B chord fingering changes a little bit in the intro, the first part of the song and the ending B chord. You can play it as X32013 first and then play it right after that as 332010.

Intro: B E B F#

B

Where 69 meets 40,

There s a single stop light town,

E

And back when I was really young,

G#m

F#

Part of that burned down,

B

On any given Friday night,

We d drive a hundred miles,

E

Between the Sonic and the Grocery Store,

G#m

F#

Laughin all the while,

G#m

F#

With as many friends as I could pack,

E

In my daddy s Ford,

G#m

F#

E

B

But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

B

My hotel in Manhattan,

E

Holds more people than our town,

B

And what I just paid for dinner,

F#

Would be a down payment on a house,

G#m

F#

I d rather be tippin cows in Tulsa,

E

Then hailing cabs here in New York,

G#m

F#

E

B

But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

Chorus:

E
I m in a world so wide,
B
It makes me feel small sometimes,
G#m F#
I miss the big blue skies,
E
The Oklahoma kind.

B
In a world of long red carpets,
E
The bright lights of Hollywood,
B
All the paparazzi flashin
F#
Can make a girl feel pretty good,
G#m F#
You can get anything you want here,
E
Except a Wal-Mart store,
G#m F# E B
But I ain t in Checotah anymore.

Chorus:

E
I m in a world so wide,
B
It makes me feel small sometimes,
G#m F#
I miss the big blue skies,
E
The Oklahoma kind.

F#
Where the Wildcats beat the Ironheads,
Old Settler s day and the Okrafest,
After prom down at the bowling lanes,
Catchin crappy fish in Eufaula lake,
G#m F# E Esus4
I ain t in Checotah anymore.

E B Esus4 E F#
Oh Yeah...

Chorus:

E

I m in a world so wide,

B

It makes me feel small sometimes,

G#m

F#

I miss the big blue skies,

E

The Oklahoma kind,

G#m

F#

E

But I ain t in Checotah,

G#m

F#

E

No I ain t in Checotah,

G#m

F#

E

Oh, there s nothing like Oklahoma.

B

Where 69 meets 40,

There s a single stoplight town