Carrie Underwood

[Intro]

C F x2

[Verse 1]

C F
It s two kids flying down the hall in our bedroom
C F
It s a breaking board on the front porch, you swear you re gonna fix it soon
C F
It s the kitchen table where we say our prays, give a little thanks to the man upstairs
Am C
It s the feeling I get baby when I look at you

[Chorus]

F G Am
It ain t always pretty as a picture, yeah
F G
And it ain t a mansion on a hill
F
It s perfectly imperfect
G Am
It s worth more than it s worth
F G Am
It s our life, it s our heart, it s our home
C
This is our kingdom

[Verse 2]

C
It s been late nights, a few good fights
F
Wouldn t sleep until we worked things out
C
It s been long days of leanin on faith
F
Even when we had our doubts
C
Barely gettin by, stretched to the limits
F
All the hard times, no, I wouldn t trade a minute
Am G
We ve come so far, it made us who we are
Right here, right now

[Chorus]

F G Am
It ain't always pretty as a picture, yeah
F G
And it ain't a mansion on a hill
F
It's perfectly imperfect
G Am
It's worth more than it's worth
F G Am
It's our life, it's our heart, it's our home
C
This is our kingdom
F
This is our, this is our, kingdom
C F
Oh, yeah, this is our kingdom

[Chorus]

F G Am
No, It ain't always pretty as a picture, yeah
F G
And it ain't a mansion on a hill
F
It's perfectly imperfect
G Am
It's worth more than it's worth
F G Am
It's our life, it's our heart, it's our home
C
This is our kingdom
C
Oh, yeah
F
This is our, this is our kingdom
C
This is our kingdom

[Verse 3]

C
It's our names craved out on that old, old tree
C
Pictures on the wall of you and me
F
It's our heart, it's our home, it's our babies faces
F
It's the light, it's the love living in these places
Am
Church on Sunday, tyre swings
Am

Good and the bad times

Am

Praying on our knees
