

Two Black Cadillacs
Carrie Underwood

Intro 2x: Ebm

Ebm B
Two black Cadillacs driving in a slow parade
Ebm B
Headlights shining bright in the middle of the day
F# C#
One is for his wife
Ebm B
The other for the woman who loved him at night
F# C# Ebm B
Two black Cadillacs meeting for the first time

Ebm
And the preacher said he was a good man
B
And his brother said he was a good friend
C# G#
But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry

Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
Ebm
Yeah they took turns laying a rose down
B
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
C# G#
He's not the only one who had a secret to hide
Ebm
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye
B
Two black cadillacs, two black cadillacs

Ebm B
Two months ago his wife called the number on his phone
Ebm B
Turns out he'd been lying to both of them for oh so long
F# C# Ebm B
They decided then he'd never get away with doing this to them
F# C# Ebm B
Two black cadillacs waiting for the ride down, ride down

Ebm
And the preacher said he was a good man
B
And his brother said he was a good friend
C# G#
But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry

Bye, Bye Bye, Bye

Ebm

Yeah they took turns laying a rose down

B

Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground

C#

G#

He s not the only one who had a secret to hide

Ebm

Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye

B

Yeah yeah

G#

Ebm C# B

It was the first and the last time they saw each other face to face

G#

Ebm

C# B

They shared a crimson smile and just walked away

And left the secret at the grave

Ebm

And the preacher said he was a good man

B

And his brother said he was a good friend

C#

G#

But the women in the two black veils didn t bother to cry

Bye, Bye Bye, Bye

Ebm

Yeah they took turns laying a rose down

B

Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground

C#

G#

He s not the only one who had a secret to hide

Ebm

B

Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye

Ebm

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah