Two Black Cadillacs
Carrie Underwood

Intro 2x: Em

```
Em                             C
  Two black Cadillacs driving in a slow parade
Em                                     C
  Headlights shining bright in the middle of the day
G               D
  One is for his wife
      Em                      C
  The other for the woman who loved him at night
G         D                      Em       C
  Two black Cadillacs meeting for the first time

           Em
  And the preacher said he was a good man
         C
  And his brother said he was a good friend
         D                                        A
  But the women in the two black veils didn t bother to cry

  Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
        Em
  Yeah they took turns laying a rose down
          C
  Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
   D                                      A
  He s not the only one who had a secret to hide
                       Em
  Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye
               C
  Two black cadillacs, two black cadillacs

Em                                 C
  Two months ago his wife called the number on his phone
Em                                       C
  Turns out he d been lying to both of them for oh so long
G             D     Em                  C
  They decided then he d never get away with doing this to them
G         D                      Em       C
  Two black cadillacs waiting for the ride down, ride down

           Em
  And the preacher said he was a good man
         C
  And his brother said he was a good friend
         D                                        A
  But the women in the two black veils didn t bother to cry
```

Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
      Em
Yeah they took turns laying a rose down
        C
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
 D   A
He s not the only one who had a secret to hide
                       Em
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye
     C
Yeah yeah

A   Em   D C
 It was the first and the last time they saw each other face to face
A   Em   D C
 They shared a crimson smile and just walked away

 And left the secret at the grave

        Em
And the preacher said he was a good man
       C
And his brother said he was a good friend
      D   A
But the women in the two black veils didn t bother to cry

Bye, Bye Bye, Bye
      Em
Yeah they took turns laying a rose down
        C
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
 D   A
He s not the only one who had a secret to hide
                 Em   C
Bye bye, bye bye, bye Bye
             Em
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
