Standing at the back door

Ab

She tried to make it fast

Fm

One tear hit the hard wood

Fm

It felt like broken glass

Db

She said sometimes love slips away

Eb

And you just can t get it back

Ab

Let s face it

Ab

For one split second

Ab

She almost turned around

Fm

But that would be like pouring rain drops

Fm

Back into a cloud

Db

So she took another step and said

Eb

Ab

I see the way out and I m gonna take it

Ab

Ab

I don t wanna spend my life jaded

Ab

Fm

Fm7

Waiting to wake up one day and find

Db

Eb

That I ve let all these years go by

Another glass of whisky and it still don t kill the pain

Fm

Fm

So he stumbles to the sink and pours it down the drain

Db

Em

He says it s time to be a man and stop living for yesterday

Ab

gotta Face it.

 She kept drivin along
Ab Fm Eb Db
 Till the moon and the sun were floating side-by-side
Fm7 Ab
 He looked in the mirror and his eyes were clear
Fm Eb Db
 For the first time in a while
Ab
 Hey, yeah,
