

Wasted
Carrie Underwood

A
Standing at the back door
A
She tried to make it fast
F#m
One tear hit the hard wood
F#m
It felt like broken glass
D
She said sometimes love slips away
E
And you just can t get it back
A
Let s face it
A
For one split second
A
She almost turned around
F#m
But that would be like pouring rain drops
F#m
Back into a cloud
D
So she took another step and said
E A
I see the way out and I m gonna take it
A A
I don t wanna spend my life jaded
A F#m F#m7
Waiting to wake up one day and find
D E
That I ve let all these years go by
A
Wasted
A A
Another glass of whisky and it still don t kill the pain
F#m F#m
So he stumbles to the sink and pours it down the drain
D Fm
He says it s time to be a man and stop living for yesterday
A
gotta Face it.

A A
I don t wanna spend my life jaded
A F#m F#m7
Waiting to wake up one day and find

That I ve let all these years go by

A
Wasted

A Oh I don t wanna keep on wishing, missing A A

F#m the still of the morning F#m7 the color of the night

D I ain t spending no more time E

A
Wasted

F#m7
She kept drivin along

A Till the moon and the sun were floating side-by-side F#m E D

F#m7 He looked in the mirror and his eyes were clear A

F#m For the first time in a while E D

A
Hey, yeah,

A I don t wanna spend my life jaded A

A F#m Waiting to wake up one day and find F#m7

D That I ve let all these years go by E

A
Wasted

A I don t wanna spend my life jaded A

A F#m Waiting to wake up one day and find F#m7

D That I ve let all these years go by E

A
Wasted