Carrie Underwood

Bb

Standing at the back door

Bb

She tried to make it fast

Gm

One tear hit the hard wood

Gm

It felt like broken glass

Eb

She said sometimes love slips away

F

And you just can't get it back

Bb

Let's face it

Bb

For one split second

Bb

She almost turned around

Gm

But that would be like pouring rain drops

Gm

Back into a cloud

Eb

So she took another step and said

F

Bb

I see the way out and I'm gonna take it

Bb

Bb

I don't wanna spend my life jaded

Bb

Gm

Gm7

Waiting to wake up one day and find

Eb

F

That I've let all these years go by

Bb

Wasted

Bb

Bb

Another glass of whisky and it still don't kill the pain

Gm

Gm

So he stumbles to the sink and pours it down the drain

Eb

F#m

He says it's time to be a man and stop living for yesterday

Bb

gotta Face it.

Bb

Bb

I don't wanna spend my life jaded

Bb

Gm

Gm7

Waiting to wake up one day and find

That I ve let all these years go by Eb F

 Oh I don t wanna keep on wishing, missing Bb Bb
Gm Gm7
 the still of the morning the color of the night
Eb F
 I ain t spending no more time
Bb

 She kept drivin along
Bb Gm F Eb
 Till the moon and the sun were floating side-by-side
Gm7 Bb
 He looked in the mirror and his eyes were clear
Gm F Eb
 For the first time in a while
Bb
 Hey, yeah,
Bb Bb
 I don t wanna spend my life jaded
