

Aint So Green
Carsie Blanton

Carsie Blanton - Ain t So Green

The way of playing the chords is like this:

```
e-----|
B----2---2-|
G----2---2-|      etc. etc. And when you have a chord with a bass on the lower
D----2---2-|      E string you just exchange the A with the E.
A--0---0---|

Intro: A, F#m, Bm, E (x2)

A, F#m, Bm, E, F#m, E

A F#m Bm E
Well I ain t so slow that I don t know that you put on a show when F#m E
I m around

A F#m Bm E
And I ain t so mean that I ain t seen the way you look to me to calm
F#m E
you down

Bm, E, F#m

But there s too many ways to break a heart
There s too many ways to fall apart
There s too many things that I could do to let you down

Bm, E, Bm, E, F#m, E

And I ain t so green that I ain t see the way love slips away without a sound

Well you ain t so bad that I ain t had a thought or two about you in the dark
And it ain t true that I don t dream about you from time to time when we re apart

But there s too many ways to steal a kiss
And far too many memories to miss
And I ll be at your mercy babe the moment that we start
And I ain t so green that I ain t seen the damage love can do in open heart

A, F#m, A, F#m, D, E

Baby give me everything you ve got
Pull me from the wreckage of the battles that I ve fought
I haven t got the strength to battle you

So maybe you could show me something new,
maybe you could show me something new

Well I ain t so cold that I ain t told you that you re the one I want to keep me warm

And I ain t so dumb that I won t come to you when I need shelter from the storm

And there s so many ways to fall in love, there s so many fears to rise above

There s so many sorry stories written in my soul

But I ain t so green that I ain t seen the way love makes the broken heart-ed whole

Baby give me everything you ve got

Pull me from the wreckage of the battles that I ve fought

I haven t got the strength to battle you

So maybe you could show me something new,

maybe you could show me something new
