Build Around Your Heart A Wall Cary Ann Hearst

A very rough attempt; every C has various simple hammer-ons and pull-offs to country it up a bit. Enjoy, this is a class song from a class album.

вb

In a vacant old park Bb I watched from the dark Eb The old church was on fire Ebm I buried my lighter Bb D Gm So no one could tell I was runnin Eb Ebm Bb God forgive me but he had it comin вb She was barely fifteen Вb midwest town sleepy scene  $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{b}$ I was two grades above her Ebm Completely in love with her Bb D Gm One look from those eyes I was done in Eb Ebm Bb God forgive me but he had it comin С F It was deadly crooked fangs Bb D Gm But outside a church-bell clangs Eb Bb F Gm Well rise and fall, curtain call CF Build around your heart a wall Eb Bb F Gm Brick and stone both thick and tall CF Build around your heart a wall With my hand on her head In a hospital bed

In the secrets she kept That would lead to her death Well the fucker had took what he wanted And I promised he d get what was comin But she never made a sound When he pushed her to the ground Well rise and fall, curtain call Build around your heart a wall Of brick and stone both thick and tall Build around your heart a wall

I tried to keep breathin As the last car was leavin Drank myself courageous Crept behind the stage Towards the target for which I was gunnin God forgive me but he had it comin It was deadly crooked fangs But outside a church-bell clangs Well rise and fall, curtain call Build around your heart a wall Brick and stone both thick and tall Build around your heart a wall Build around your heart a wall
