G D Em D C The stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up G D
Its where I drank my first beer I cried my first tear Em D C
On the corner of north and main G D
Down the bricks of exchange I felt so strange Em D C
She reached down and gave me a kiss G D
And in the shadows of downtown I hung around Em D C
To find me a gold buckle queen
Chorus: G D Em D C
In the stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up
Solo: G D Em D C
G D If your down in the sheets twirling the loops
If your down in the shoots twirling the loops Em D C
Cadilliac s is probably your spot

Man its cowboy hats and cowboy cats

```
Εm
              D
As far as the eye can see
And I ll be coming back real soon to longhorns saloon
So Alex can pour me a beer
                         D
                                   \mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}
In the stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up
Solo: G D Em D C x2
                     D
If your on the chase I know the place
                D
William Roberts will surly suffice
And if your not sure just drink one more
            D
She ll look better I swear
Cause I was given birth in south fort worth
That s where I ll live and die
                         D
                                   Em
In the stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up
Solo: G D Em D C
Not sure where you are it could be PR s
                      C
I ve been lost there myself
Two steps from my pillow the shut down armadillo
                  D
I stopped off and bought one round
                                   Em
In the stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up
Its were I drank my first beer I cried my first tear
On the corner of north and main
       G
                                   \mathbf{Em}
```

In the stockyards its my backyard that s where I grew up
