

Shes Still Suffering Cass McCombs

Hey, I saw that someone posting the chords to this but they sound wrong. Here s how I hear it.

Standard tuning

Am G (lick on high E , ---3---1---0)

F G

Who aren't you today?

Where and what are we?

Am G
Under a pile of worn clothes

Am G
This is how I find you

Spinning vomit-webs
Blabbering on and on
You need more than vitamin D

Am G
Is there not anything you love?

F Come OUT. G

Am G

Dog, you know what this is
What are you hiding from?
You were once such a merry prince
Just tickled pink by life

Take , remember her?
She never could listen
Itâ€™s been years upon years
And sheâ€™s still suffering

Come OUT.

Am	G	F
Look at the apples on the tree
	G
Wait æ™til they fall

Just find what makes you come alive
And that is all

Swing on a chandelier
You are in perfect health

Donâ€™t give up on your friends
Donâ€™t give up on yourself

Open heartsâ€|
