Your Love Is Extravagant by Casting Crowns
Lyrics and music by Darrell Evans

Capo 2

[Verse]

E/F#            A       C#m       B                      E/F#            A       C#m       B
Your love                                  is extravagant

E/F#            A       C#m       B                      E/F#            A       C#m       B
Your friendship,                                  it is intimate

E/F#                            A                                  C#m                                  B
I feel like moving to the rhythm of Your grace

E/F#                            A                                  C#m                                  B
Your fragrance is intoxicating in our secret place

E/F#            A       C#m       B                      E/F#            A       C#m       B
Your love                                  is extravagant

[ Chorus ]

B F#m (E/F#)A B
 Spread wide in the arms of Christ is the love that covers sin
 B F#m (E/F#)A B
 No greater love have I ever known You considered me a friend
 E/F#
 Capture my heart again
