...DAYTIME... by Cat Stevens
-----.....

from Back to Earth (1978)

Intro:

D G (x3), Bm A G

Verse 1:

D G D G
In the daytime, time for cele-bration.

D G Bm A G
No use lookin down, if it s over here.

D G D G
It s a world, a new cre-ation.

Em9 A E
And the golden light of the morning, makes it easy to comb your hair.

G D Esus4 E D G, D G
And the love of the child; it s the time of the year.

Verse 2:

D G D G
In the daytime, you can move a mountain.

D G
With a blink of your eye;
Bm A G
Now it s over here, now it s over there.

D G D G
It s a world, with no compli-cations.

Em9 A E
And the curtains on the window, start blowing like your hair.

G D Esus4 E D G, D G
And the love that I feel, cos it s the time of the year.

Middle 8:

Bm A G A
Mysterious moon, found me cryin in the dark;

Bm A G, A
Heard my footsteps on the stairs.

Bm A G

Mysterious moon found me cryin , but the sun,
D G D G
Dried my tears; showed he cares.

Instrumental:

D G (x7), Bm A G

Verse 3:

D G D G
In the daytime, time for cele-bration.
D G Bm A G
No use lookin down; children open your eyes.

D G D G
It s a world, a whole nation.
Em9 A E
Now the white boats have landed, and the innocent are here.
G D Esus4 E D
So dream for the child, cos it s the time of the year.

Outro:

D G (x3)
Bm A G (x2), D
