Verse 1:

Bm                Em                A7
I know I think a lot,                but somehow it
         D                F#m                Bm
just doesn't help, it only makes it worse.
G                Em                A7                F#7
The more I think, the more I know, the more it hurts,
         Bm                Bm/A                G
With only solitude to meet me like a friend,
         A7                F#7                Bm
Oh, where are you? Where are you? Where are you?

Verse 2:

Maybe she sits alone beyond the storm
Across the raging torrent of the sea.
She knows I want her, and she knows I'll always be.
How can I live without the love I cannot see?
Oh, where are you? Where are you? Where are you?

Bm                Em                A7                D F#m Bm
ooo ..... (whistle or hum)

Additional part:

G D
I know there's someone there,
G D                A
I hear her breathe
G D                C A7
behind the silence of the dark.
         D                Bm                G                A7
But I know that I won't see, til we open up our eyes together,

D                      Bm                      G                      C#7                      F#
She ll look at me, what a moment that moment will be.
         A                      G                      F#7                      Bm
And she looks so light: I could fly her through the night.
Em                      F#7
Oo oo oo oo--

Verse 4:

I know I think a lot, but somehow it just doesn t help.
It only goes to show
That what you never miss, you ll never know.
But I have loved you from the moment that we knew,
Oh, I love you! I love you, but where are you?
