 D9 G9
I m sorry you couldn t make it
 D9 G9
You could have seen him, so weathered and dated
 E
 A
And I know that you would hate him
 D9 G9
If you d seen his botanical leanings
 D9 G9
First prize exhibit and all down to good spirit
 A
And I know that you would hate me
 D9 G9
If I envied the things that he spoke of
 D9 G9
How I envied the things that he thought of
 A
And I know that you would hate me
 G
If I told you that I made some time and stayed behind
 Bm
To find out how to make a garden grow
 Gm D
Where the sun no longer shines
 Gm
If I asked too many questions and I stayed behind
 D
To find out how to make a garden grow
 E A
But he never ever gave away the secret of this godforsaken soil

D9 G9

D9 G9

D9

G9

He didn't need us, just tempted and teased us

D9

G9

You could have been here, wishing you were here

A

And I know that you would hate me

A

And I know that you would hate me

G

If I told you that I made some time and stayed behind

Bm

To find out how to make a garden grow

Gm

A

Where the sun no longer shines

G

He assured me that the seeds you sold were sound

Bm

But I must have cast them all on stony ground

Gm

D

And now the sun won't shine

Gm

I must have asked too many questions

D

And stayed behind to find out how to make a garden grow

A

But he never ever gave away the secret of this godforsaken soil.
