Am

She s got her own, trajectory
She leaves my heart, 11 degrees

G

I see her eyes, reflecting me

F

I see her lifestyle, affecting me

Am

And I go round, I lose a night
She tends to obfuscate, when it s black and white

G

It s like she puts love, to the back of her mind

F

Then rips it out again, and she s back at mine

She said

C

Oxygen s overrated, I don t even need to breathe

F

G

She s got a tank full of highs, and a mind that never sleeps

Am

I loved you then, I love you now
So make me laugh, for an hour

G

Then rip me off, high as a cloud

F

And leave a taste, in my mouth
