Oooohhh...
F#
Hey, I love the night life
                      A#5
Yes I do it s so much fun
And before you know it
Ah here comes the sun
F#
                   C#5
Sweetheart it s been real, but...
A#5
The thrill is gone
F#
Silence is like a spirt
That picked my house to haunt
                            F#
But I know it s there so I m nonchalant
                 C#5
Now the question is what do I want
(Chorus)
                                                            C#5
            F#
And I want you to run away with me and experience something new
                                         F#
                                               C#5
Anything you ve already done just won t do
G#5
I want you
 F#
Would a trip to a remoted island ease your mind

A#5

Oh you look like a solitare every sunshine
I like her cause she s fun
          C#5
And she s fearless
She s a friend of mine
F#
And I m not trying to say that you need some help
Or you can have anything you want with your bad self
F#
I like her cause she s smart
                 C#5
But she s still sexy
She is somethin else
(Chorus)
                                                            C#5
            F#
And I want you to run away with me and experience something new
                                        F#
Anything you ve already done just won t do
G#5
I want you
                                                A#5
And I want you to genuinely and sincerely want me too
You can believe in my baby, don t be cruel
               G#5
Cause I want you
F#
Oooh...Oh one world to find a lady
That happens to be three times the lady
God is good
A#5
But he took his time when he designed you baby
That s why I want you
    F#
And Oh I ll even quit my job
Lovin you, I ll make it my job
                 A#5
Thank you Lord, thank you lord
This is it My god!

F#

thank you lord
This is it My god!
(Chorus)
                       F#
And this is why I want you
         C#5
Oh I want you
  G#5
to run away with me and experience something new
Anything you ve already done just won t do
F#
I want you
           A#5
                    G#5
And I want you to genuinely and sincerely want me too
                               G#5
You can believe in my baby, don t be cruel
F#
Cause I want you
