Sixteen For A While Celtic Connection

Sixteen For Awhile Written by: Dave Carroll SOCAN Album: The Celtic Connection The Celtic connection Album available on Popular Warner Records [Verse] G D Em С 1. I returned to my home town yesterday C G and my life before my eyes came flashing back Εm Everything was changed and the faces look so strange sometimes I wish that I was young again [Chorus] And if I close my eyes think on back to happy times C I could be 16 years old for awhile Honest friendships, high school dances innocence short romances Life was simple but it sure was good somehow [Verse] 2. Then we drove to an old beach last night a place we used to go not long ago Walking barefoot in the sand I saw to people holding hands Falling in love for their first time [Chorus] 3. Now I m older I guess a little wiser experience is added to my name But I can t help but feel that I traded apart I am along the way CHORUS twice