Crosses

by Chad Michael Stewart

from the album Machete Avenue

C

Without hope thereâ€™s nothing left but empty frames

Am

Like a night sky without its burning stars

F

A kiss that turns into a moment gone to far

C

Another blank face calms the angry crowd

Lets close this rugged highway

G

Clear the wreckage left from travellers from a far

Am

Lets lay new ash fault down and burn under the sun

F

Become an emerald fire and light the way for those to come

Am

G

F

Two loverâ€™s names painted on walls of stone

Am

G

F

Roadside crosses of loved ones we donâ€™t know

Without hope thereâ€™s nothing left but empty frames

Am

Like a night sky without its burning stars

F

A kiss that turns into a moment gone to far

C

Another blank face calms the angry crowd

Lets settle on the hillside

G

Unpack the suitcase filled.. filled with parchment hearts

Am

Lets watch the rainfall drown the filth from dying streets

F

And live for chance.. another chance to make things right

Without hope thereâ€™s nothing left but empty frames

Am

Like a night sky without its burning stars

F

A kiss that turns into a moment gone to far

C

Another blank face calms the angry crowd

Without hope thereâ€™s nothing left but empty frames

Am

Like a night sky without its burning stars

F

Two loverâ€™s names painted on walls of stone

C

Roadside crosses of loved ones we donâ€™t know

Outro: Am, G, F
