Chad Spriggs

Verse

```
E                   A                                    B
By loving me youâ€™ve made me lovely
E                   A                                    B
Touching me youâ€™ve made me clean
E                     A                                      B
By hearing me youâ€™ve given me purpose (life)
C#m                           A            E
        Iâ€™ll never be alone again.
```

Never alone, youâ€™re with me through it all
        C#m                  A                  B
