

Bonnie Parker
Charlene Kaye

Another beautiful song by Charlene Kaye. No capo needed.

Look up the song for strumming pattern :) have fun

INTRO: Em

Em
1. I would like to run away
C Am B C Am
To a place where clouds would roll high in the afternoon
C B Em
Where sidewalks light up by the harvest moon

Em
2. I would like to run away
C Am B C Am
To a place where stars could be seen as a warning
C B Em
Where we could rise clean in the morning

B C
Duststorms are spiraling fast
B Em
Just bury your face in your hands
B C B Em
And follow the river that just keeps flowing

Em
3. I would like to find a place
C Am B C Am
Where the taste of blood in my mouth could evaporate
C B
Where my soul could just rest from all this weight

G D F C
And then you and I could live in peace
G D F C B
Yes, you and I, we would dine like kings complete again... oh

PLAY: Em C Am B C Am C B Em

B C
Duststorms are spiraling fast
B Em
Just bury your face in your hands
B C B Am B
And follow the fire that just keeps growing yeah
