

Different Colored Eyes
Charlene Kaye

A beautiful song by Charlene Kaye and the Different Colored Eyes... enjoy!
TIPP: The G#m is strummed once trough the whole song, it's like a jump from A to Em. You dont have to play it, leave it out if you want!

while leaves drop every autumn day

but they don't put up a fight

Gm D A
once out of sight, they're out of mind

so why can't i?
