Dmaj7 Gmaj7 Dmaj7
darling, why am I not surprised it rained today?
Gmaj7 Cmaj7 Fmaj7
doesn't it seem my broken heart just tends to ride the wind
Cmaj7 Fmaj7
but what will break the weight that's held up by a string?

Dmaj7 | Gmaj7 Dmaj7
you don't reminisce like me bout how it was Gmaj7 Cmaj7
romanticizing these redundant thoughts
Fmaj7
I'm never free
Cmaj7 Fmaj7
so I wait for your parade to come rain down on me

Bbmaj7 Fmaj7***
I'm running around hoping to find Ebmaj7
somebody like the boy that I left behind Bbmaj7***
who loved all of me
Ebmaj7 Bbmaj7***
my fingernails and scatterbrain and crooked teeth

 dreams donâ€™t carry quite the weight they used to have Gmaj7 Cmaj7
 two kids looking through rosy colored glass
Fmaj7
 like fools in love
Cmaj7 Fmaj7
 the summer drugged our senses, filled our eyes with stars

 but now we say goodnight confined to separate sides

 and youâ€™ll never compromise your current life to look behind
Cmaj7 Fmaj7
 you never planned to love me for this long a time

 somebody like my one, though in time Iâ€™m sure Bbmaj7***
 Iâ€™ll grow to know

 anotherâ€™s eyes, anotherâ€™s laugh and skin and bones

Gmaj7 Cmaj7
 cuz with the distance came this awful dam
Fmaj7
 and being in in love

 with someone I canâ€™t feel or hold or see or touch
