

Shutters And Boards

Shutters and Boards (Charlie Pride)

(C)Shutters and boards (G)cover the windows,
Of the (D)house where we used to (G)live,
(C)All I have left is a (G)heart full of sorrow,
Since she (D)said she d never for(G)give,

The (C)house that we built was (G)once filled with laughter,
But (D)I changed that laughter to (G)tears,
(C)Now I live in a (G)world without sunshine,
(D)Oh, I wish you were (G)here,

(C)Shutters and boards (G)cover the windows,
Of the (D)house where we used to (G)live,
(C)All I have left is a (G)heart full of sorrow,
Since she (D)said she d never for(G)give,

Last (C)night I dreamed that (G)you came to our house,
To (D)take an old book from the (G)shelf,
If you ll (C)open the shutters I ll (G)tear down the boards,
Cause I (D)drove every nail by my (G)self,

(C)Shutters and boards (G)cover the windows,
Of the (D)house where we used to (G)live,
(C)All I have left is a (G)heart full of sorrow,
Since she (D)said she d never for(G)give,

(C)Shutters and boards (G)cover the windows,
Of the (D)house where we used to (G)live,
(C)All I have left is a (G)heart full of sorrow,
Since she (D)said she d never for(G)give.
