

My Brightness
Charlie Hall

This is a song from Charlie Hall's album The Bright Sadness, it's called My Brightness.

I had the chords let alone lyrics up yet so I decided to figure them out and post them.

Some of the lyrics may be off I had to write them down too.

Capo 2

Verse 1

G
well i've been hit from every corner
C
and I've been thrown from side to side
G
and them cracks up on the inside
