

But you gotta get back on it and live it and live it to love it
And live and love life !

Cause we all kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
All the girls kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
And the boys kick the bucket in the end ! My friend !
Yep ! We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end ! The end ! The end ! The end

This is not a sad song !
I don\ t bring it up to get you down,
It\ s a celebration for all the red cells
Going round and round in your body !

I don\ t mean to preach or to sound like a teacher.
No ! I only wanna cut the crap and looking back,
Everybody\ s had to face the facts.

That we all kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
All the girls kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
And the boys kick the bucket in the end ! My, my, my, my friend !
Yep ! We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end ! The end ! The end ! The end

Ah, ah ah
Ah, ah ah
