

Indiana Sun
Chase Coy

Capo 4

Intro : C

C Am
As I look out on the sunrise on the Indiana skyline,
F G C
and its rays are resting heavy on my face.

C
I think about the days I spent

Am
Just wishing I was home again,
F G C
Instead of always traveling place to place.

F C
I ve been homesick
Am G
because I ve laid deep roots
F C Am G
in Indiana soil where I spent up all my youth,
F C Am G F
and I ve been waiting just to be back home again
G C
and feel the Indiana sun shine on my skin.

As I look out on the sunset
and I try hard not to forget,
All the memories that I made while I was here.

I think of all the friends I ve made and all the people I should thank for lessons I have learned over the years.

I ve been homesick
because I ve laid deep roots
in Indiana soil where I spent up all my youth,
and I ve been waiting just to be back home again
and feel the Indiana sun shine on my skin.

Am F
Home is where the heart s been waiting

C G
oh so patient, just to hear the sound

Am
of the back door open

F it s always open

C

I ve been hoping just to find my way back here again.

G

Because I ve been homesick
because I ve laid deep roots
in Indiana soil where I spent up all my youth,
and I ve been waiting just to be back home again

Am

and feel the Indiana sun shine on my skin.

C

And feel the Indiana sun shine on my skin.

More lyrics: http://www.lyricsmania.com/indiana\_sun\_lyrics\_chase\_coy.html

All about Chase Coy: <http://www.musicictory.com/music/Chase+Coy>