```
Embrace
Chase & Status
   Eb
       Bb (x2)
When the daylight weighs a tone
And all my friends are gone,
                         Eb
                                  Bb
                                         G
There s rust around the things I love.
                           Eb
When it s fraying at the seams
     Вb
Of reality and dreams,
                      Eb
                                Bb
All those dreams are quiet and dull
C
                    Eb
This life s alright, but it s not enough,
I m looking for a quick exit. Like a prisoner on the run
This life s alright, but it s not enough,
I m looking for a quick exit. Like a prisoner on the run
G
                    Eb
                                   Вb
Big town break down, look how the stars come out
                    Eb
                                Вb
Big town break down, why didn t you just shout,
                                  Eb
I m lonely when I m looking for a place to go,
Where everythings an embrace and everybody wants to know.
                    Eb
                                      Вb
I m your absent valentine, I m the pigtails in the bride,
                              Eb
I m the still that calms the toes in your bathtub
                          Eb
I m the lynch mob in the dark, I m the silkworm in your heart,
                  Eb
Spinning out my perfect circle
```

C Eb

```
This life s alright, but it s not enough,
I m looking for a quick exit. Like a prisoner on the run
                    Eb
This life s alright, but it s not enough,
I m looking for a quick exit. Like a prisoner on the run
                    Eb
Big town break down, look how the stars come out
                    Eb
Big town break down, why didn t you just shout,
                                  Eb
I m lonely when I m looking for a place to go,
Where everythings an embrace and everybody wants to know.
                               Eb
                                                   Bb
I m on the water, fetch your brother, fetch your daughter.
                                Eb
Come come on down, fetch your sister, fetch your son.
I m on the water, fetch your brother, fetch your daughter. (This life s alright,
but it s
not enough,
                                Eb
                                                   Bb
Come come on down, fetch your sister, fetch your son. (I m looking for a quick
Like a prisoner on the run)
                                Eb
I m on the water, fetch your brother, fetch your daughter. (This life s alright,
but it s
not enough,
                                Eb
                                                   Bb
Come come on down, fetch your sister, fetch your son. (I m looking for a quick exit.
Like a prisoner on the run)
                    Eb
                                   Bb
Big town break down, look how the stars come out
                    Eb
Big town break down, why didn t you just shout,
I m lonely when I m looking for a place to go,
Where everythings an embrace and everybody wants to know.
G
                     Eb
                                    Bb (x2)
                                   Eb
I m lonely when I m looking for a place to go,
```

G Eb Bb G

Where everythings an embrace and everybody wants to know.