Dreamer " Chelsea Wolfe

¾ time. Chords: C, Am, Fm, G|F?

If only life could be so perfect
And we would wake up side by side
And the only trouble wed have would be to decide
Which drink to make on a lovely summer night
Oh ooh I would that life were so simple
And loving hearts wouldn't have to try
To find other loving hearts to beat along with them
Wed all share blood and roses and wine

Chorus

Oh dreamer, love is unkind, but youre in my dreams tonight
Dreamer, well be alright, one day well be side by side
One day well be side by side

If love were real like someone once told me
And everybody 'd wake up with a smile
And nobody would be surprised when
Their arms were filled with someone so fine
If only life could be so perfect
And we would wake up side by side
And the only trouble wed have would be to decide
Which drink to make on a lovely summer night

Chorus

Dreamer, love is unkind but youre in my dreams tonight
Dreamer, well be alright, one day well be side by side
Dreamer, well be alright, one day well be side by side
One day well be side by side
One day well be side by side
