

Too Many Faces

Cherri Bomb

[Verse]

D

Do you care about me?

Do you think I don't bleed?

B

Are you trying to hide behind a stupid lie

When the truth is in your eyes?

D

Do you think I don't see

What you're pushing on me?

B

In your mind you think it's only you

Against the world

A

Is it you against the world?

[Chorus]

G

You say you'll never go that far

D

But you're not who you say you are

B

You've got too many, too many faces

A

Your time is up in too many places

G

You say you'll never push that hard

D

But you're not who you say you are

B

You've got your heart in too many places

A

You've got too many, too many faces

D

Have you lost yourself?

Always trying to sell

B

The person that you think you are

You stay alone

Cause real's just too hard

D

Always laying the blame

You're never one and the same

B

Could it be that you're afraid to look inside and find

A

You ll never get it right

[Chorus]

G

You say you ll never go that far

D

But you re not who you say you are

B

You ve got too many, too many faces

A

Your time is up in too many places

G

You say you ll never push that hard

D

But you re not who you say you are

B

You ve got your heart in too many places

A

You ve got too many, too many faces

[Verse]

Em

So many sides to you

F#

Nobody knows the truth

D

How you ever gonna keep it straight?

Em

I know what you re all about

F#

I ve got you figured out

G

Do you wanna be a memory?

[Chorus]

G

You say you ll never go that far

D

But you re not who you say you are

B

You ve got too many, too many faces

A

Your time is up in too many places

G

You say you ll never push that hard

D

But you re not who you say you are

B

You ve got your heart in too many places

A

You ve got too many, too many faces

[Outro]

D (strum once)

Do you care about me?
