China Forbes

Intro: Bm A G

Dm G
You woke up and left this morning
C Am
Didn't give me any warning
Dm G C C/B Am
All that we've been working for is gone, gone, gone
Dm G
If I ever needed someone
C Am
Now is when I really need you
Dm G C C/B D
Like the one I voted for is gone, gone, gone

Bm A
I wasn't listening to you
G
When you told me you loved me
Bm A
I wasn't focusing on you
When you towered above me

I woke up alone this morning
Clouds in the sky adorning
Trees bare of leaves
You know they're gone, gone, gone
Do I have to be somewhere, no
Never one to matter solo
Wishing I had asked you
But you're gone, gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone

I wasn't listening to you
When you told me you loved me
I wasn't basking in the glow
When it shone down upon me
I was just caught in your shadow

D A
I wish I had a replay to do it over
Em
I know I could do better
D A
And then maybe you'd stay with me forever
