

Though I Know She Lies
Chris Bell

Though I Know She Lies

G C D G C D
When I look though your eyes I tend to get bitter
G C D G C D
Maybe I m best advised to look to myself
Am Bm Em Am Bm Em
I fall every time though I know she lies
Am Em D
I can t stay away

Stars would fall from the sky and I won't forsake you
 You've got lust in your heart what's sad to me
Am Bm Em Am Bm Em D
 I'll use every line, anything to make you mine

D#6 G Cm
 Keeping me in the dark wondering where you are Em
 Don t let me fall apart
A D A D
 You said take it slow but I don t know
G
 I don t know

Lying awake in the bed trying to cope with the feelings
I m don t know if it s love but what can I do
I fall every time though I know she lies
I can t stay away
