

Fine China
Chris Brown

Artist: Chris Brown
Song: Fine China
Tuning: Standard EADGBE
Key: Eflat

There are some quick chord changes in the song that are hard to depict in the tab.

Listen to the recording a couple times so you can get the rhythm down pat.

In brackets are the optional bass notes and extra pitches, they re there just to add a little spice and flavour to the piece.

I m not dangerous

Ebm9

When you re mine,

(#9) (/A#)
I ll be generous

G#m7

A#m7

You re irreplaceable

Bmaj7

A collectible

Ebm9

Just like fine China

The song continues just like that for a little bit more. The verse and chorus is all the same chords.

When the bridge comes along, its the exact same chords and rhythm as the verses/chorus. It just might be a little tricky since Chris Brown is singing all over the place, but if you listen closely you can easily pick out the chord changes.
