Riff x2 (etc.)

I feel sorry for the earth s population cuz so few live in the u.s.a. at least the foreigners can copy our morality they can visit but they cannot stay only precious few can garner our prosperity it makes us walk with renewed confidence we ve got a place to go when we die and the architechtt resides right here we ve got the american jesus postering the ...(?)...

overwhelming millions every day he s the farmer s barren fields the force the army wields the expression in the faces of the starving millions the power of the man he s the fuel that drives the clan he s the motive and the conscience of the murderer he s the preacher on tv the false sincerity the form letter that s written by the big computers he s the nuclear bombs and the kids with no moms and I m fearful that he s inside me

we ve got the american jesus...
