These are the approximate chords I worked out but I don t think that they re in the same key of the record. So there s lots of room for refinement.

Anyway, here my version :

Lonely Sky - Chris de Burgh (from the album Spanish Train - 1975?)

G

That cold North wind they call La Bize

Em

Is swirling round about my knees

C

D

Trees are crying leaves into the river

G

I m huddled in this French cafe

Em

I never thought I d see the day

D

When winter s here and summer s nearly over

D

Even the birds have packed up and gone

C

They re flying south with this song

C

And my love, she too has gone

D

She had to fly, take care

Chorus :

G

It s such a lonely sky

Em

Am

They ll trap your wings, my love, and hold your flight

D

G

They ll build a cage and steal your only sky

Em

Am

Fly away, fly to me, fly when the wind is high

D

I m sailing beside you in your lonely sky

2nd verse :

The old cathedral lights are low

She and I we d often go

To admire and sometimes kneel in prayer

Lords and ladies lying in stone

Hand in hand from long ago

Though their hands are cold, their love s forever

Even the choir rehearses those songs

For Christmas is not long

And my love, she too has gone

She had to fly, out there

Chorus:

There s a couple other lines here during the fade out part but no new chords.
