These are the approximate chords I worked out but I don t think that they re in the same key of the record. So there s lots of room for refinement.
Anyway, here my version :

Lonely Sky - Chris de Burgh (from the album Spanish Train - 1975?)

G
That cold North wind they call La Bize
Em
Is swirling round about my knees
C D
Trees are crying leaves into the river
G
I m huddled in this French cafe
Em
I never thought I d see the day
C D
When winter s here and summer s nearly over
C D
Even the birds have packed up and gone
G C
They re flying south with this song
G C
And my love, she too has gone
D
She had to fly, take care

Chorus :

G
It s such a lonely sky
Em Am
They ll trap your wings, my love, and hold your flight
D G
They ll build a cage and steal your only sky
Em Am

Fly away, fly to me, fly when the wind is high

D

I'm sailing beside you in your lonely sky

2nd verse :

The old cathedral lights are low

She and I we'd often go

To admire and sometimes kneel in prayer

Lords and ladies lying in stone

Hand in hand from long ago

Though their hands are cold, their love's forever

Even the choir rehearses those songs

For Christmas is not long

And my love, she too has gone

She had to fly, out there

Chorus:

There's a couple other lines here during the fade out part but no new chords.
