G C
Was one night in Spring,
F G
with stars in the sky.
F C
When a young girl called Molly,
A# D
put a gleam in my eye.
G C
Her hair was like raven,
F G
her smile, from the sun.
G F
April was the month,
C G
our romance begun.

G F C G

G C
Each evening we d meet,
F G
when working was through.
F C
We d walk in the meadows,
A# D
where no others went to.
G C
Laughing and talking,
F G
we had so much fun.
G F
April was the month,
C G
that my romance begun.

G F C G

G C
One day when I met her,
F G
she said a wrong had been done.
F C
Oh Johnny, dear Johnny,

G C

With tears in her eyes,

F G

no smile from the sun.

G F

April was the month,

G F C G

G C

The church bell rang out.

F G

The greatest day of my life.

F C

For the raven haired Molly,

A# D

I took for my wife.

G C

In the fall of that year,

A baby she was born.

G F

But Molly, dear Molly,

C G

G F C G

G C

The ground it was cold,

F G

as the wind blew all around.

F C

As my raven haired Molly,

A# D

was laid in the ground.

G C

Her daughter was waiting,

F G

for her mother to come.

G F

April was the month,

C G

my romance begun,
